OFF-STREET PARKING

Mayor Asks Merchants To Aid Mission

Mayor Frank Pacelli's promises for a concerted council effort with the cooperation of merchants to improve Daly City's Mission street commercial district began to take positive shape this week.

Pacelli revealed that he had invited several leading Mission street businessmen to a conference to discuss off-street parking ideas and in general, the elimination of certain unsightly structure areas which could be converted into prosperous stores and shops.

"Off street parking is a big problem," the mayor commented, "and the only way we can get something accomplished is to have the merchants participate with us for a workable solution."

The off-street parking problem has been one sore spot of controversy here for many years. Some observers, however, feel the city councils during this period have been handicapped by the lack of full cooperation from the Mission merchants — a group which lacks representation as an organization.

At Monday's meeting the council heeded a petition signed by merchants in the 6700 block of Mission and voted to re-install one-hour parking meters there on both sides of the street. The merchants had requested the meters again—after a lengthy no-meter trial period — because they feel more business will result if habitual "all-day" parkers are discouraged by the paid zones.

On request of the council, City Manager Edward Frank has instructed the police department and parking meter repairman Shelby Ross to survey the entire Mission street area to determine the effectiveness and status of the parking meters.

Ross today explained that the city presently has about 475 meters—365 of them presently in use on the east side (Continued on Page 2)

Citizens Committee Cites The Danger Of Possible Change In Location Of Local Freeway Route

"The Junipero Serra Freeway is still a danger to Westlake," a prominent Westlake civic leader warned district residents and businessmen today.

Edward Murphy, 398 Northgate avenue, Daly City, said that he believed that there is still a chance that the Skyline-Alamany route for the Junipero Serra freeway might still be revived.

He said that the proposed double-decked freeway section would take nearly 400 Westlake homes and would seriously damage retail and residential property values in the district.

Murphy's comments were backed up by Daly City's City Attorney Paul Hupf. Hupf filed a statement with the State Attorney General last week declaring that a real emergency existed in April, 1960, when the city of Daly City approved the annexation of Callan Park—a huge tract of land lying between Skyline and Junipero Serra boulevards south of Daly City.

Hupf explained that all sections of the Northern San Mateo County six-freeway system except the northern segment of Junipero Serra have been approved. The final decision on that segment is expected in September.

"Choice of the Skyline boulevard route, opposed by Daly City, would injure business activity, would impair residential and business property values and would require the destruction of more than 400 Daly City homes," the city attorney said.

The special referendum election on the annexation will be held on August 16. If the annexation is defeated, it is expected that South San Francisco will take the 871-acre tract into its city boundaries.

"The problem of Daly City in this period of negotiation was the adverse position of the city of South San Francisco as to whether the interstate freeway would extend from Daly City generally south along Skyline boulevard or generally south along Junipero Serra boulevard," Hupf said explaining the city's emergency annexation ordinance.

South San Francisco has stood alone against Daly City, San Bruno and Pacifica in opposition to the Junipero Serra route.

REFERENDUM WILL DECIDE CALLAN PARK ISSUE

Council Majority Cite 'Finality' Of Election On Disputed Tract

Two individual requests for the repeal of the controversial Callan Park emergency ordinance (515) were rejected Monday night when the council majority and city attorney refuted the statements of attorney Edward O'Haire of the anti-annexation forces and refused to second a motion for rescinding the annexation made by Councilman Joseph Verducci.

O'Haire, representing the "Citizens Committee For Good Government," charged that the "special referendum election on August 16 will have no effect if the emergency annexation ordinance stands... this election will be a farce," and "why not rescind the emergency action?"

Mayor Frank Pacelli snapped back that the council majority "is content to let the August 16 vote of the people decide the issue" and challenged O'Haire's declarations that "the Callans will have good cause for legal action against the council as a whole and individually if the annexation is defeated August 16."

Pacelli said O'Haire was "in error" in stating that the council was granting building permits to Callan on approved Callan Park Unit I-A. The mayor allowed that O'Haire was correct in asserting that certain department heads were busy processing Callan Park maps and data, but insisted that this was normal procedure.

"We have not been granting any building permits on Callan Park, however," Pacelli emphasized. He added that the final subdivision map of Callan Unit I-A has not been presented by the developer and approved by the council.

"The annexation process for Callan Park is no different from any others," said Pacelli. "Every phase must go through the proper legal channels."

City Attorney Hupf, who clashed with O'Haire last week when he (Hupf) and five other Daly City officials were subpoenaed to testify in Superior Court before Judge Louis DeMatteis in Redwood City, disputed O'Haire's statements Monday evening that the Callans "have a good cause for action against the city should the annexation be defeated at the polls."

Hupf repeated that the annexation procedure matched the normal process and reiterated the council's position that "the sole purpose of the emergency ordinance was to give Daly City immediate jurisdiction over the Callan tract in order to maintain our stand against adverse freeway route adoptions."

Hupf challenged O'Haire's presentation in superior court on June 21, at which time the latter, seeking a court injunction against the city to prevent expenditure of public monies on Callan Park, insinuated that the freeway was not the inherent reason for the council's 4-1 emergency enactment.

The city attorney pointed out that the two Callan Park annexation ordinances were approved by the council April 11, and that on April 3 and again on April 27 the highway division held meetings on local freeway route discussions... "which certainly are evidence of the council's legitimate concern over the freeway as far as the Callan Park action was concerned."

Hupf termed the "talk of a Skyline freeway... terminating at Brotherhood Way, wishful thinking, as we long have been on record against this route, its uprooting of homes and the commercial district in Westlake, I am sure, aren't in favor of the Brotherhood Way proposal."

O'Haire asked Hupf why he "declined to answer Judge DeMatteis statement last week that the city should 'suspend' its activity on Callan Park."

Hupf answered that O'Haire was "misinterpreting DeMatteis' statement... he asked if there was any disposition on the part of the city to postpone any action on Callan Park until the annexation decision is effected."

"I declined to answer this query," Hupf pointed out, "because I felt as counsel for the city council I had not had the opportunity to discuss the specific request with the council."

DeMatteis took O'Haire's groups injunction request under submission last week after hearing testimony from Hupf, Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, City Clerk Evelyn Mosman, City Engineer Bill Chapman and City Treasurer Joseph Lewkowicz. O'Haire questioned each on their duties and asked questions assertedly to ascertain the extent of council expenditures and policy on fire and police coverage for Callan Park.

O'Haire's group seeks to have the court authorize an injunction to prevent the expenditure of public funds on the big tract, based on their contention that the emergency ordinance is invalid and that the recent petition drive against the regular ordinance (514), in effect, suspended that ordinance.

Hupf has argued before DeMatteis that the superior court has no jurisdiction in the matter. He believes the annexation will be resolved by the referendum and/or a decision from the state attorney general on a petition.

New High School District Budget Will End In 'Red'

Public hearing on the Jefferson High School District's 1960-61 budget, which will be working at a $177,812 deficit, will be held on August 1 at 8 p.m. at 375 South Mayfair avenue.

Superintendent Edward Morgan said the deficit has been anticipated for some time and cash reserves of $950,000 have been held in abeyance by the district to meet the deficit.

Morgan added that the deficit is due to the district expecting an increased enrollment of 900 high school age children and the 46 additional instructors hired to teach them. Teachers' salaries will be $365,000 more, a jump from this year's $1,125,000 to next year's $1,490,000.

New Tax Rate Told Soon On Sewer Budget

The North San Mateo County Sanitation District's proposed new fiscal budget totals $263,574 ($165,000 of this in capital outlay), director-chairman Bob St. Clair disclosed today.

St. Clair said the final budget decisions will be made at a meeting on July 11 at the Westlake headquarters building. An increase over the present 19 cents per $100 valuation tax rate is expected.

Maintenance and operations costs in the new budget are estimated at $47,575, while salaries of the district's seven full-time employees would total $50,000 if the proposals are adopted.

The $165,000 proposed for capital outlay expenditures is headed by an estimated $115,000 for a new digester to "balance out" the present plant and allow the district to accommodate 70,000 residents by 1970. St. Clair explained that the present digester, which cost $250,000, needs periodical cleaning, thus the addition of a second tank is necessary to assure a steady operation at the Westlake plant and to meet increased sewage volume.

Fifty thousand dollars earmarked for capital outlay would be to cover any emergencies that may arise in the course of the next 12 months. The directors also are studying the need for a new outfall line from the Westlake facility to the ocean.

The new budget, considerably higher than last year when capital outlay expenditures were negligible, is predicated on an assessed valuation of more than $52 million — the district's assessed valuation for '59-60.

The proposed $50,000 for salaries is predicated on a 5% increase for all seven permanent employees, including secretary-bookkeeper Marie Mulyaert.

'VOTERS LEAGUE' TO HAVE PANEL ON CALLAN PARK

The Non-Partisan Voters League of Daly City, under the temporary chairmanship of Wayne Douglas of Westlake, today announced plans for a panel "pros and cons" discussion on the Callan Park annexation — tentatively set for the second week of August.

The League will invite speakers from both the Callan group and the Fred Walker-led anti-annexation group to participate in the public session. Also on the speakers' platform will be municipal government authorities from State College, University of California, and possibly a moderator from Stanford University.

Sole purpose of the panel discussion will be to inform as many residents as possible with all the facts on the annexation, a League spokesman emphasized.

He commented that the board has been working with the budget since last February. Ten classifications are included in the budget's $2,448,180 total. They are: administration, instruction, auxiliary services, operations, maintenance, fixed charges, transportation of pupils, food services, community services and capital outlay.

Conti Murder Trial Delayed 3 Weeks

The murder trial of Daniel Conti, 61 years old, who admittedly shot his wife Mary in the chest on February 14 after she told him she was going to file for divorce, has been postponed three weeks.

Police Captain Roy Beecher said the trial was delayed after half a day of court action. Conti's lawyer asked for, and received, a postponement due to Conti's having a cardiac history. A doctor's examination proved Conti in no condition to continue at this time.

Conti, 28 Knowles avenue, is pleading "not guilty by reason of insanity."

Council Studies Tax Increase Problem

(Editor's Note: Following is City Manager Edward Frank's new fiscal budget message and recommendations to the City Council.)

"It should be emphasized that the proposed budget has been prepared as a 'working guide,' or a plan for rendering services during the year, with monies properly appropriated to carry out such a plan. Emergency expenditures or unforeseen developments requiring additional cash outlay will only be made in accordance with Council policy. Amendment to the budget or changes in the adopted program may be made by proper legislation in accordance with any new or extra requirement necessary to cope with new situations occurring during the fiscal year.

"The estimated budget requests by department heads chargeable to the General Fund total $873,254, and represent $92 of the tax rate, which by state law is limited to $1.00. Those chargeable to special tax are allowable by state law are as follows:

Library	$89,076
Tax Rate	$18
Parks & Recreation	$150,823
Tax Rate	$32
Retirement	$122,266
Tax Rate	$26
Combined	$1,235,419, and represent a $1.68 tax rate after taking all sources of revenue into consideration. No request for additional tax this year is contemplated by bond retirement, as sufficient funds are available to meet requirements. All requests have been studied and reviewed with department heads, and after a study of the City's general financial ability, it was necessary to reduce certain expense classifications or delete requested items. This amounted to $200,598. In so doing, it was possible to propose a balanced budget which would require a total tax rate of $1.48. "The 1959-60 budget had to be adjusted by the sum of $241,000 in order to balance properly. These funds came from Capital Outlay and Water Department reserves, the amount of which represents a $58 tax, and, if added to the $90 that was used in the tax structure, the actual tax rate for the present budget (59-60) should have been $1.48.

"You will note that a number of reports, charts, summary of revenues, and expenditures and other financial data prepared by the Director of Finance (Joseph Arch) have been included for your information during budget study.

The largest expenditure, of course, is in personnel, and in this respect, the budget proposes:

1. That public safety personnel (police and firemen) remain at the same number as proposed in the 59-60 budget (some of these positions were not filled due to fiscal difficulties.)
2. That all public works departments be held at the same number, except in the Water Department.
3. That personnel in other departments, such as Finance,

Administration, and so forth, be reduced slightly.

The total recommended cost of personnel is $1,179,357. This includes nearly all recommendations on evaluation of job classifications and salary schedules as submitted by the Personnel Board to the Council, after a long and worthwhile study. These recommendations are also augmented by those of this department.

In addition to these costs, it is proposed that a flat 3 percent cost-of-living increase be rendered across the board, based on the Consumer Index Reports, which in essence show that between March 1, 1959, and March 1, 1960, there was a 2.6 percent increase in living costs in the Bay Area.

"It is further proposed that when the Council adopts the classification plan study as recommended by the Personnel Board and this office, consideration be given to freezing the present interrelationship of salaries, and only consider cost of living increases each year.

Further, at regular three year intervals, a general classification audit should be conducted to eliminate what maladjustments in salaries, if any, have developed.

"It should be noted that with the limited amount of funds available, a broad but economic Capital Outlay program is submitted. Many of the items are necessary in order to cut costs in personnel. In addition, reserves are provided as follows:

General Fund	$22,750
Capital Outlay	$8,755
Water Fund	$22,086

"In addition, any excess of revenues over expenditures remaining from the 1959-60 fiscal year will be added to the unbudgeted reserve. Our present unbudgeted reserves are at a minimum; it is therefore recommended that as part of an over-all, planned program, our reserves be increased to 10 percent of the total budget, approximately $200,000, within the next three years.

"The need for adequate plan-

Councilmen Transfer Additional $29,458 To Balance Budget

In two resolutions Monday night, Daly City councilmen approved transfers from the replacement and extension, capital outlay and unbudgeted reserve funds totaling $29,458.12 to pay for items authorized in the '59-60 fiscal budget but for which no earmarked funds were available when these expenditures were due.

Earlier this year, the council, facing a critical general fund deficit, transferred approximately $241,000 from capital outlay and the water fund to effect a balanced budget.

Monday's transfers were $14,448.12 from unbudgeted reserve, $10,000 from capital outlay to pay for books to stock the new Westlake library, and $5,000 from replacement and extension to pay for water department equipment and installation of new water meters.

POLICE FOLLOW RUST SPOTS TO GARAGE DOOR

A trail which led to the garage door of one of the suspects gave police the clue which ended in the arrest of a Jefferson High School night school student, two Jefferson graduates and rug layer Sunday.

The night school student is 16, the other three boys all 17. Evan Guardello Hunter, 275 Alexander street, said his vehicle was stolen from in front of his residence at 11 p.m. Saturday. He returned the vehicle to his home after finding it at Hanover street and Templeton avenue at 10 a.m. Sunday.

Hunter said his battery, radiator, air cleaner, generator and whole dash board had been removed. Officer Les Bastardo and Sergeant Charles Terry found rust spots under where the vehicle had been placed. They followed the rust spots for two blocks, leading them to the garage door of one of the suspects.

The graduate readily admitted the theft. He said, "We took his car because I could have used the motor in a car

DOG MUTILATES HIS MASTER'S DEAD BODY

The badly mutilated body of Alvin Martin Nunes, 61 years old, 44 Reiner street, Colma, a former crossing guard for the City of Daly City, was found at his home by Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage last Friday.

Savage described the sight as "the worst I have ever seen." The last report received of anyone seeing Nunes alive was the previous week. Nunes had died of a heart attack and his body had been badly mangled by his dog.

Nunes was a widower, his wife dying six months ago. His brother-in-law, Ralph Dull, 18 Sullivan avenue, Colma, notified Savage that he had knocked on the door at the Reiner street address and received no answer. Savage found Nunes lying between the kitchen and bedroom, death coming from a heart attack.

I'm building." He added that the motor wasn't removed as the boys didn't have the right kind of wrenches to do the job.

ning of Capital Outlay programs and improvement in the water system on a pay-as-you-go basis requires that the Council carefully consider not only present expenditures, but also revenues available to the city. The growth of Daly City requires increased services and more employees. Consequently, an adequate balance must be maintained between property taxes and other revenue.

"For the coming year, it is suggested that the Council as quickly as possible re-evaluate and correct the Business License Ordinance and consider changing the structure of the Water Ordinance establishing rates and procedures thereof.

"Other matters of importance for the improvement and general growth of Daly City that may be contemplated are:

"1. A water department program utilizing available funds for a planned program, so that it will not be necessary to have any immediate bond issue.

"2. Re-evaluation and policy determination on the use of parks and recreation activities as they may relate to other tax jurisdictions.

"3. The completion of elements that make up a Master Plan, which would be a guide for the future of Daly City.

"4. A policy program relative to future capital outlay programs as they are related to Library and Parks and Recreation, which should be considered on a basis other than that of general government services (except water).

"5. Last, but not least, a civic center plan whereby city services and possibly county services can be all centralized in one area.

"It may be that during the budget sessions, some items may be added or deleted as the Council may determine. Nevertheless, this budget is submitted as a practical document for carrying out the basic services of the City within fair and equitable financial ability."

REQUESTS TO REPEAL 'EMERGENCY' ANNEXATION ORDINANCE FALL FLAT

tion filed by the anti-annexation group which asks to challenge the emergency enactment in court on its "constitutional-ity."

Hupf's official answer to the attorney general on the emergency ordinance states the council's concern over the freeway as the basis for the "emergency" designation on the ordinance. The city attorney maintains that there is no precedence in state law to show that an emergency ordinance of any kind has ever been declared illegal by litigation.

Hupf supplemented Pacelli's remarks about the Callan building permits with the declaration that none legally can be granted on Callan Unit I-A until the final subdivision map and a $100,000 performance bond is delivered by the builder and approved by the council. In previous Daly City annexations, the highest performance bond ever received by the council amounted to $25,000 from the Doelger Corporation. Such performance bonds cover basic improvements by the developer such as streets, sidewalks, sewers and storm drains.

Verducci moved Monday evening (following O'Haire's presentation) that the emergency ordinance be rescinded. Lack of a second killed his proposal.

Prior to this, Councilman Michael DeBernardi asked Hupf if the ordinance proposed by Verducci (to repeal the emergency ordinance) "was legal."

Hupf said he thought the ordinance "is valid, but it would not represent a complete act to dis-annex the property."

He explained that if the rescinding ordinance had been adopted Monday evening, it would take effect in 30 days—about the end of July. Then the council, Hupf went on, would have to ask the secretary of state to reverse the annexation—"a time consuming process which would end fairly close to the August 16 vote of the people on the annexation, anyway."

Several members of the good-sized audience joined in the annexation comments Monday evening. Volunteer firemen Frank Tardelli, a leader in the campaign to keep Callan Park in Daly City, read a statement concerning the length of previous annexation negotiations, citing figures on Doelger and McKeon agreements, then asked Pacelli "if the Callan Park discussions didn't take more time than any other single annexation."

Pacelli, assisted by Hupf's recollection, declared that the city staff spent "about 70 days before the annexation was finalized on April 11... yes, I feel this was quite a bit of time for careful consideration of annexation terms."

Verducci, however, disputed Tardelli's "figures" and said that previous annexations "were not as sizeable and didn't present as many problems as this one does."

Planning Commissioner John Schaeffer of Westlake spoke briefly about Jefferson Elementary School District's statements regarding school sites in the Callan development... "They had no objection to the first unit of the tract as presented in plans approved by us (planners) and the council."

Mrs. Michael Amorose of St. Francis Heights scored the council for allegedly not paying attention to numerous protests raised by school officials during the public hearing on the annexation. Hupf then explained that "valid protests were determined by legal interpretation under state law... and there is no provision in the code that a city must get approval of school districts prior to voting on subdivision maps and new developments."

Hupf qualified that a city should see that school problems are discussed and plans explained on all subdivision developments. Pacelli then reminded that the council was coordinating its actions with the school jurisdictions.

Real estate salesman and former council candidate Edward Murphy of Westlake inquired of O'Haire, "are you representing South San Francisco in protesting the annexation?"

O'Haire answered, "No, I am a Daly City resident, and I feel we have enough problems here."

In other agenda action, the council:

1. Set July 25 public hearing on R-1 to R-3 rezoning application of Richard J. Ragni for property at 156 and 168 Westlake avenue. Five neighbors at first opposed the proposed height of the apartments. Ragni met with them and declared his buildings wouldn't exceed 20 feet in height. The planning commission subsequently approved the rezoning.

2. Granted use permits to—John S. Klinger for detached garage at rear of 700 Niantic avenue; Robert H. Saxe for garage and workshop at 237 Los Olivos avenue; Primo Corral for used car lot at 6660 Mission street; Hope Lutheran Church for sign at southwest corner of San Fernando Way and Junipero Serra boulevard.

3. Approved issuance of business licenses to—Sil Petrin for California Food Bank at 6748 Mission street; John E. Hebler and Jay Chronister for Fiberglass Shop at 5990 Mission; John Odello for John's Beauty Salon at 49 Crocker avenue; Lewis D. Tadlock for Salton Sea Investments at 6123 Mission street.

4. Ordered resolution for agreement with state on gas tax expenditures for 1960-61, totaling $51,000 for maintenance of all major and secondary city streets, and $28,000 for resurfacing four-tenths of a mile on Mission street, from Mission-San Jose intersection to Liebig street near the San Francisco line. San Francisco will be asked to contribute $3500 to this Daly City project.

5. On motion of Councilman Dennis, by unanimous vote asked that planning commission "reconsider and clarify" its denial of R-2 to R-3 zoning change requested by Harry Curusis for property at north-west corner of Hillside boulevard and Como street. Nine homeowners protested this rezoning, and the planning commission held that it would constitute "spot" zoning, denying it unanimously. Dennis and Councilman DeBernardi urged the reconsideration because they claim the reasons against the rezoning were not clearly established in the letters from the planners. The planning commission will again consider the matter at its July 12 meeting.

6. Held over second reading of Ordinance 519 for unclassified to C-2 rezoning change on the Fuchs-Olcese property north of Pierce street near M. Pauline Brown School in St. Francis Heights. The problem is water service—whether the property owner should use available California Water or the city system. The latter would mean the need for an additional transmission line.

7. Conducted second reading on unclassified to industrial rezoning of property at easterly end of Market street.

8. Authorized renewal of contract with California Cooperative Personnel Services for 1960-61, at estimated $1650 expenditure, for state-supplied civil service exams and services.

Sports Playday

On Friday the Daly City Parks and Recreation Department will begin its Special Events Program by having a Sports Playday at Colma School and Westmoor High School.

The playday will include various activities such as softball, basketball, kickball, and volleyball for the older age groups and low organized games and story-telling for children 7-9 years of age.

All youngsters living on the west side of Junipero Serra Boulevard should attend Westmoor High School while those on the east side of Junipero Serra should attend Colma School. All participants will be escorted to and from the playgrounds by the recreation leaders. More information regarding the playday may be obtained from the leaders at their respective playgrounds.

PIONEER MORTICIANS

N. Gray & Company Observes Its 111th Year In Business

The pioneer San Francisco firm of N. Gray & Company, one of America's oldest funeral directors, today begins its 111th year in business. Founded in 1850 by Nathaniel Gray, the company started with a two-room wooden building, the front of which was a "funeral parlor" and the back room a carpenter shop for assembling and polishing caskets which were shipped dismantled "round the Horn from the East. A mule-drawn wagon covered with black cambric was the hearse.

of town. Since the city first purchased its original 500 meters about 10 years ago, only 25 or 30, Ross said, have been damaged beyond repair. He estimated that the original cost of the 500 meters was about $32,000 to $35,000.

Parking meters brought the city an estimated $20,000 in revenue this fiscal year. This money goes into the general fund.

In another parking matter, the city manager reported Monday night that a survey would be made of parking conditions in the area surrounding War Memorial Community Center for a report back to the council. Tavern owner George Kirchhubel last year asked for this study. He suggested diagonal parking there as well as center strip diagonal parking where Los Olivos and Los Banos avenues merge.

Newsboy's Wallet Stolen By Older Teenagers Here

Richard McLin, 14, 107 East Vista avenue, said he was selling papers at Hillcrest drive and Mission street when two older boys grabbed him and took his wallet containing $14 last Saturday.

McLin said the two boys, both about 6-1, 150 and 165 pounds and 17 or 18-years-old, grabbed him and took his wallet. They fled North toward San Jose avenue, dropping the wallet in front of Kirchhubel's Tavern. The money was missing though.

The 14-year-old told Officer Tom Culley he did not know them and had never seen them before.

Theft, Damage At Concrete Plant

Two clocks were stolen and $500 damage done at the Ferrando Concrete Company, 595 North Parkview avenue, over the weekend.

Officer John Van Otten said Bert Quaraglia, 51, 550 Niantic avenue, foreman-estimator of the company, reported the break-in to police. The thieves broke the rear window and released the latch to gain entrance. Besides the damage and stolen clocks the burglars took $2 worth of dimes.

Van Otten said the suspects were apparently mainly interested in getting money. There are six other cases on file with police that match the same mode of operation.

Burglars Escape But Police Collect Tools At Cleaners

Police thwarted a possible burglary at Sanford's Cleaners, 10 Dixon court, last Thursday at 12:58 a.m. through the help of a silent alarm system.

Officer Robert Stables was dispatched to the scene when the alarm system rang at the police station. He found a large paneled overhead door had the lower panel missing. Believing a burglary to be in progress he called for assistance. Four officers arrived at the scene.

An intense search of the surrounding area proved negative. Special Officer Leahy crawled through the sawed out panel and let the other officers inside. The search inside also proved futile.

Jack Friedman, 51, 71 Hillcrest drive, the owner, responded to the scene. He said he did not believe anything to be missing and would report later if any articles were gone.

Found just inside the door were the tools used by the burglars. Collected for evidence were a hand drill, ¼ inch drill, screw driver, keyhole saw blade, two keyhole saw blades, a chisel, hammer, steel bar and punch type instrument. Stables said the burglars may collect the tools at the police station if they so desire.

POLICE ARREST SAILOR AFTER RACIAL FIGHT

Police scurried three blocks in order to arrest Nathaniel Wiley Smith, 22, a sailor aboard the USS Midway, for assault with a deadly weapon following a fight over racial "name calling" at the Pacific Market parking lot, Mission and Flournoy streets, last Friday at 12 midnight.

A fight was reported to be in progress and police had no cars available as the keys had been turned over to the "graveyard" shift. Sergeant David Hansen and Officers Matthew Murray, Steve Steen, Tom Culley and Philip LaBruzzi ran to the scene.

The battle had apparently started as John Van Huystee, 21, 1234 Park avenue, San Bruno, and four men walked past Smith, his girl friend, and another couple. Van Huystee was alleged to have called some discriminatory remarks and then thrown two empty bottles at the passers.

Mrs. Calvin A. Williams, of Oakland, responded by taking off her shoe and striking Van Huystee in the face. Smith took a gun, loaded with four .32 caliber bullets, from his girl friend's purse and struck Wayne Bundy, 21, 137 Altaloma drive, South San Francisco, over the head.

Sergeant Hansen found the gun under the suspect's car later. He said all concerned had been in the same tavern previous to the outburst but everyone claimed they had not taken notice of each other while there. Murray said the combatants could all sign complaints if they so desired. Judge Charles Becker set bail for Smith at $2625.

Boly And Fender Man Damages Body And Fender Here

A body and fender repairman damaged the body and fender of an auto belonging to Carl Tiedje, 63 Werner avenue, as he fell asleep at the wheel Sunday at 2:45 a.m.

Transported to Junipero Serra Hospital were George Timothy Fritz, 22, 36 Milan terrace, San Francisco, and Josephine Ohlsen, 26, 163 Valmar terrace, San Francisco, his passenger.

A signed statement by Fritz noted, "I apparently fell asleep at the wheel, hitting a parked car pushing it through a fence." The incident occurred 60 feet South of West Moltke street on Mission street. Officer Robert Stables cited Fritz for driving at an unsafe speed.

COUNCIL BUSY—BUDGET SESSIONS

This is "budget week" for Daly City councilmen. Following Monday night's regular meeting, the council met three hours in closed session to discuss personnel and salary requests. On Tuesday they again reviewed City Manager Edward Frank's budget recommendations. Yesterday a meeting was scheduled at City Hall, 8 p.m., with Chris and George McKeon on Zita Corporation on the St. Francis Heights annexation agreement settlement. This Thursday evening the council will continue on the budget, and in adjourned session, at 8:30 o'clock, will make initial authorizations on expenditures for next fiscal year, which begins Friday, July 1.

'Turnout' Law

The California Highway Patrol reminds vacationists who plan trips into the mountains of California this summer that the "turnout" law will be enforced wherever appropriate signs have been posted.

The turnout law requires slow-moving traffic to move aside and allow impeded traffic to pass. Turnout areas have been built on two-lane highways throughout the state where traffic and road conditions warrant. Signs reading "Turnout ¼ mile" give advance notice while others reading "Turnout" mark the location.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

AFRICAN BOY SEEKS PEN PALS HERE

Dear Editor:

With due respect, I humbly beg to write you this letter with much faith in you that you will kindly help me to publish this letter in your newspaper.

I will be more grateful if my obligation is favorably done. I hope to get some pen-friends in your state. May God help you in all ways. Thanks
AN AFRICAN BOY SEEKING PENPALS.

Dear fellow people,

I am African boy, 17 year old, my height is 5'5" and my favourite sports are swimming, football and table-tennis. I am seeking for penpals around the state and with whom I can change some African products with American products.

African products are ebony carving in shape of man, woman and elephant, slippers and handbags made of different kinds of skins of animals and some fancy calabashes for dressing houses, etc.

I shall be waiting for you all friends.

I am yours,
Alaba Ojogiwa

Housewife Cites Annexation Merit —Shopping Centers

Dear Editor:

It seems obvious to me that there is little likelihood that Daly City will enjoy vast industry growth and hence we are in danger of being caught in the squeeze between low revenues and mounting costs for providing municipal services.

As I understand it, as a result of the addition of Westlake, Daly City is enjoying $69,000 in taxes over the cost of supplying necessary services in this area.

If this is the case, why shouldn't Daly City annex Callan Park? By doing so, the city will acquire a vast new area with all required public works installed and paid for in advance. The taxes on property, plus the revenue which will come from the shopping centers planned for Callan Park, will certainly be a boon to Daly City and, in a measure, offset our lack of industry and a strong tax base.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Mayre Albert

Westlake Catholic Newspaper Coverage

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

On behalf of the officers and members of the Westlake Catholic Women, I wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude for all the assistance in publicizing our activities that the Marchbanks Publications have given us. For the past year the Westlake Times and The Record have written up all events, both spiritual and social, as they have done every year for our organization.

We are especially indebted to Mr. Roy Hurlbert, who has been most cooperative and such a pleasure to work with. We have had complete coverage in all our endeavors; consequently we have had success in all these endeavors.

Mrs. Martin J. Ruane will assume the responsibilities as the new publicity director for the Westlake Catholic Women for the ensuing year, and I am sure you will find her quite enjoyable to work with, as well as efficient.

Yours Truly,
Joan Fenton

PAID SOLICITORS AGAINST TRACT?

Dear Editor:

I'd like to know who these people are who are trying to block the annexation of Callan Park. I heard that all the people who got the names for the petitions were paid solicitors. I'd like to know who paid them. Some of the people who signed the petition say they didn't even know what they were signing. I think the so-called Citizens' Committee fighting the Callan annexation is a front. I've been told that the annexation of Callan Park will give us nearly a quarter of a million dollars in new tax money. I'm for taking advantage of this windfall while Daly City has the chance.

Yours,
Mrs. Michael Migliore

Claims More Jobs Will Result From Callan Annexation

Dear Editor:

As a member of organized labor, and the building trades in particular, I'd like to point out that the building industry has been an important part of Daly City.

It should be clear to everyone that the annexation of Callan Park will mean thousands of new jobs in all of the building trades for several years. We can be certain of one thing, if Daly City doesn't get Callan Park, somebody else will, and Daly City will be older and poorer as a result.

Your truly,
Irwin Smith

Challenges Motives Of Oppositionists

Dear Editor:

With the City Council, the Chamber of Commerce and many other civic groups on record for the annexation of Callan Park, I'd sure like to know what the motives are of those who are opposing this move.

They call themselves citizens for good government, but if they are, why are they opposing the recommendations of our duly elected officials? They must be professional agitators.

Sincerely yours,
Shirley M. Sutter

Miss Penny Tweedie Named Girls State Resources Director

Rae Ann Engdahl of San Jose has been elected governor of the 17th annual Girls State session after a vigorous campaign by both mythical political parties, the Whigs and the Tories.

Girls State is a youth training program in citizenship and Americanism and is sponsored by the California American Legion Auxiliary.

Governor Ann Rae's appointments to the Governor's Council included the selection of Penny Tweedie, 1116 Nimitz drive, Broadmoor, as "director of natural resources." The daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert C. Tweedie, Penny is a student at Westmoor High School. She is sponsored by Broadmoor American Legion Auxiliary 824.

OLPH Student Joins Boys Chorus In SF

Patrick Hethcoat, 10, a sixth grader at Our Lady of Perpetual Help School, has been admitted to the ranks of the famed San Francisco Boys Chorus—a group which makes many special tours and appears with the San Francisco Opera Company.

Patrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hethcoat, 827 Bellevue avenue.

Guido J. Rozzi Joins Poletti Realty Company

Guido J. Rozzi, former mayor of South San Francisco and prominent business and civic leader, has joined Poletti Realty, industrial and commercial real estate brokers with offices in Daly City and South San Francisco.

Rozzi is the owner of his own furniture and appliance firm in South San Francisco where he has been active in business affairs for 29 years. He has leased his business and will devote full time to his real estate activities, according to Louis Poletti, head of the realty firm.

The Poletti firm has been particularly active in the South San Francisco area where it was responsible for development of the Airport Boulevard Industrial Park.

Rozzi, now in his fifth year as a member of the city council, served as mayor from 1956 through 1959, a period of unprecedented growth and development in all areas of land development—industrial, commercial and residential.

A combat veteran of World War II, Rozzi serves as president of the Peninsula division of the League of California Cities. He is also president of the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and serves on the executive board of Boy Scouts of America, San Mateo County unit of United Bay Area Crusade and the South San Francisco Boys Club.

Rozzi lives at 310 Rockwood drive with his wife Helen, sons Phillip, 17, and Steven, 12, and twin daughters Margaret and Doris, 9.

CIVIL DEFENSE BOOKS STILL AVAILABLE

Daly City Administrative Assistant Philip Brown said today that civil defense booklets are still available for residents' perusal.

Brown noted that half of the booklets were distributed at the beginning of this year and the others were sent out last week after the city received a second supply of envelopes.

He commented that there are 3000 books left over and they will be made available to the public through the chamber of commerce and merchants. They may also be picked up at the water, finance and police departments.

Brown said that every homeowner "theoretically" has a book as the addresses were taken from the water department's listing of residences. However, he noted that certain apartment house dwellers did not receive them as issues were sent to owners who paid the water bills.

'Single Car' Crashes Took Toll Of 28%

Single car crashes in which the automobile ran off the roadway and overturned or struck some other object accounted for 28.4 percent of all fatal traffic accidents in California last year, reports the California Highway Patrol.

Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittendon said there were 871 single car accidents in which 983 persons were killed. One-fourth of them occurred during the three-hour period from 1 a.m. until 4 a.m. "Four out of five of these accidents happened outside of cities and were investigated by the California Highway Patrol," Crittendon continued. "The information we gathered indicates one or more of three factors—too much speed, drinking, and sleepiness—contributed to almost all of them."

This is definitely a kind of accident that the individual motorist can prevent. The answer lies partly in reducing speed not only to within the legal limit but also to the speed at which the driver can keep his car under control. In addition, no person should continue to drive when his reflexes are slowed by too much alcoholic beverage or just normal sleepiness.

School Board Meets Friday In Brisbane; Budget Hearing Set

School Superintendent Lois Barrett today announced that the Brisbane Board of Trustees will hold their reorganization meeting on Friday, July 1, at 5 p.m. in the auditorium of the Brisbane Elementary School. The regular July meeting of the board will be held on the same evening immediately following the reorganization meeting.

Also, the board voted to hold the annual budget hearing at 7:30 p.m., Monday, August 1. Immediately following the budget hearing, the regular August board meeting will be held.

NAVY RESERVE Lieutenant Ronald S. Kuchac, 754 Higate drive, Daly City, climbs aboard a Navy HSS-1 helicopter at Oakland Naval Air Station prior to a submarine hunting mission at sea. A Daly City fireman in civilian life, Kuchac is presently spending the two weeks required each fiscal year on active Navy duty for training purposes. In addition he attends drills at NAS Oakland one weekend each month as a member of Naval Air Reserve Anti-submarine Helicopter Squadron HS-871. While on a routine flight two years ago, the former Navy pilot had an opportunity to demonstrate the value of his Reserve training by an exciting rescue of two swimmers who might have drowned during an undertow at Thornton Beach. Raised in Daly City, Kuchac attended San Francisco State College, City College of San Francisco, California Polytechnic and the University of San Francisco. He and his wife, Patricia, have two children, Kathleen, 1, and Steven, 4.

Cancer Society Thanks Helpers; County's Goal Optimistic $92,450

Nine Peninsula hospitals, schools and research centers are participating in a major cancer research effort which to date has represented a public investment of $3,080,038.34, today reported San Mateo County Cancer Society President Mrs. Edward H. Jenanyan.

The funds have been made possible by years of dedicated effort such as that contributed by the 5000 San Mateo county volunteers whose fund drive and educational efforts have produced record life-saving results annually.

The society expects to top its $92,450 fund goal this year, according to Mrs. Jenanyan, who adds, "It's entirely thanks to the tireless work of our volunteers, who are performing one of the greatest services to humanity." Annual fund drive figures for the society will be issued shortly.

Since 1946 the Cancer Society has promoted research at Stanford University the Palo Alto Medical Research Foundation, Santa Clara County Hospital, San Francisco County Hospital, Mt. Zion, Children's Hospitals in San Francisco, the University of San Francisco and the University of California at San Francisco.

Amplified on a national scale the $80,000,000 spent in research has saved 150,000 lives last year and will save another 150,000 this year. It means every four minutes another American who had cancer is saved.

"That's what a contribution to the Cancer Society has done," adds Mrs. Jenanyan. "But it's still not enough when we remember that last year more school children died of cancer than of any other disease."

Anyone interested in obtaining informative literature or contributing to the society may contact county headquarters at 320 Third Avenue in San Mateo.

Ex-Submarine Personnel May Reenlist Here

Navy Department announced recently that a Navy Department directive has been issued listing "open rates" in which certain personnel who were qualified and designated for submarine duty at the time of discharge or release from active duty, and who have been discharged or released less than three years, may reenlist in the Regular Navy in the rate held at time of discharge or release to inactive duty.

Former personnel that were discharged or released from active duty in the Regular Navy, or individuals last discharged or released from a tour of not less than two years of continuous active naval service while a member of the Naval Reserve, and were designated as qualified for submarine duty at the time of discharge or release may be eligible for reenlistment.

"Qualified in Submarine" designator must be indicated on the Armed Forces of the United States Report of Transfer or Discharge (DD-214) issued at the time of last discharge or release.

All applicants for enlistment or reenlistment in accordance with this directive must be qualified for enlistment or reenlistment in all respects.

Individuals who meet the eligibility requirements may be enlisted or reenlisted in the Regular Navy in the rate held at time of discharge or release to inactive duty.

See your Navy Recruiter and find out about this unusual opportunity. Your Navy Recruiter is located at 6705 Mission street, Daly City. Phone is PL 6-3740.

B'nai B'rith Convention In San Diego

B'nai B'rith Women District Four will assemble in convention at the Del Coronado Hotel, San Diego, July 2-6, according to Mrs. Joseph H. Stone, District President. Approximately 450 delegates and alternates are expected to attend, from the eight Western States and British Columbia.

Theme selected for this year's convention is "The Challenge of the Sixties." Keynote speaker at the joint opening session will be Dr. Max Lerner, Brandeis University professor and lecturer.

Mrs. Charles Solovitch, national president of B'nai B'rith Women, will be the speaker at the Women's Luncheon: The theme of the luncheon will be "Bless Your Heart," saluting the women of B'nai B'rith for their achievements.

Delegates attending from Skyline Chapter will be Mesdames Robert Weiner, president, and Robert Wisley, first vice president.

Fireman Apprentice Nickless Takes Part In Festival

Doyle A. Nickless, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nickless, 91 Santa Elena avenue, took part in the 52nd annual Portland Rose Festival at Portland, Ore., June 8-13, while serving aboard the icebreaker USS Staten Island.

A contingent of 10 Navy ships visited the city during the festival. The 3500-man complement of sailors and Marines are traditionally an important part of the celebration, giving the citizens of the area and thousands of tourists the opportunity to visit with their Navy and Marine Corps afloat.

LA Woman Loses Purse, $90 With It

A Los Angeles woman left her purse in a telephone booth here last Wednesday evening and as a result lost $90 in cash and miscellaneous papers.

Edith M. Wallace, 2447 Claremont avenue, Los Angeles, told Officer Tom Culley she forgot her purse in a telephone booth at Mission and Castle streets at 5:30 p.m. When she returned at 6:45 p.m., the purse was gone.

She told the officer she could be contacted at the Golden Gate Auto Court, 7301 Mission street, if the purse was found.

Auto Wrecking Shop Has $190 Worth Of Auto Parts Taken

Gene Lynch, 948 Brunswick street, owner of the Colma Auto Wreckers, 235 B street, Colma, reported that $190 worth of used auto parts had been stolen from his shop.

Lynch told Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage that eight radiators, many tools and two transmissions had been taken sometime between 7 p.m. Monday and 8 a.m. Tuesday. Savage said juveniles are believed to have been the culprits.

Going Someplace On The Fourth? Beware Of The 'Terrible Two'

Beware of the Terrible Two—traffic and drownings!

That's the caution extended today by the San Francisco Chapter, National Safety Council as a forewarning of the top hazards to be encountered over the forthcoming Fourth of July holiday.

Traffic took 276 lives over the Fourth in 1959—ten of those in California—and drownings claimed 178 victims. In addition, 65 persons died from miscellaneous causes during the mid-summer holiday.

The holiday period will begin this year at 6 p.m. Friday, July 1, and will continue through midnight Monday, July 4.

To reduce the number of accidental holiday deaths from all sources, the Council is asking everyone to be aware of the dangers that can come up, whether you're behind the wheel of a car, having fun swimming, or busy in the home.

Some of the dangers in traffic, for example:

- 1—Trying to drive too far too fast.
- 2—Driving a car that's in poor shape. (A minor auto ailment can too easily become major under the stress and strain of turnpike driving.)
- 3—Permitting irritations to drive you into an accident.
- 4—Driving after drinking.
- 5—Ignoring speed laws and traffic regulation—which are established for your protection.
- To be safe around water, the Council advises:
 - 1—Remember, it's not only swimmers who drown. Persons walking near the water, and persons playing or working in or by water, also are frequent victims of drowning.
 - 2—Know how to swim. Don't swim alone.
 - 3—Practice moderation in swimming—don't try to swim all the way across a lake or river.
 - 4—Horseplay is unwise around water.

JUHSD TO GAIN 235 CROCKER HILLS PUPILS

Jefferson High School District trustees Monday night voiced no objection to taking 235 more students into the fold.

The "no objection" was voiced after Superintendent Edward Morgan read off notes of a meeting with Panorama Subdivision builders George Parsons and Fred Bahrt concerning the Crocker Hills development.

Parsons and Bahrt stated that the 120 acres, 12 of them in San Francisco and remainder in San Mateo County, is currently a part of the Bayshore Elementary School District. The unincorporated area is being considered by the City of Daly City for possible annexation.

"If annexed, a request will probably be made that said area becomes a part of the Jefferson Elementary School District," the letter stated.

"Regardless of which elementary school district holds jurisdiction, it will be a part of the Jefferson Union High School District," it said.

As presently designed, the proposed subdivision will contain 700 homes on 33 foot lots. According to state formulas a total of 235 students will attend the local district's high schools. The board voiced no objection to the plan.

AROUND TOWN

By ROY HURLBERT

IF YOU think federally-assisted "redevelopment" is a remote technical term, just take a Sunday drive through San Francisco's Western Addition—due West of the Fillmore.

Hiroshima never looked more desolate than the ancient structures that are being leveled to make room for modern residential and business buildings.

Like freeways and rapid transit, redevelopment has become a local reality. It's a good idea to keep abreast of all three—particularly if you are interested in the future of your community.

APPARENTLY, amendments to Daly City's new zoning ordinance have satisfied the handful of citizens who appeared earlier before the planning commission to take exception to certain portions of the proposal.

Just as in the case of the Land-Use map, the commission agreed that some changes were necessary.

On both matters, however, the public turnout was indeed too small.

MANY Daly City residents are watching the Natale murder trial (South San Francisco episode) with extreme interest because all the principals have local ties.

Defending the man is former muni judge Tom Bocci. The Natales used to live in Daly City. And finally, one of the key witnesses who testified is a local auto dealer.

HAZEL Colwell, long-time Jefferson Elementary District school teacher, is off again (July 7) for another trip. This time she's bound for Honolulu, Tokyo, Formosa, Hong Kong, Singapore and Thailand.

Two years ago she visited Alaska. Last summer she toured Australia and New Zealand.

Join the teaching ranks and see the world!

VIC GONZALES, the Hillcrest "barber of Seville," couldn't quite make the trip to Tulsa last Saturday for his son's marriage to Therese McGraw.

The groom's lovely sister, Sandra, and his brother, Richard, traveled cross-country to participate in the event.

Both the bride and groom formerly lived in San Francisco, and they will make their home there. They exchanged vows in Oklahoma because it was more convenient for Therese's relatives.

WASHINGTON STATE native Steve Maritakis, a graduate of San Jose State's journalism department, is the newest addition to the advertising staff of Marchbanks Publications.

An Air Force veteran, Steve should be right at home here. Three other members of the upstairs staff also are graduates of San Jose State.

WATCH for some fireworks in mid-July when Daly City's $30,000 water report is delivered to city councilmen. The survey is late and the council is red-necked about the entire arrangement.

CONGRATULATIONS to South San Franciscans for coming up with a "local" name for that town's second high school. The plant, to be built off Old Mission road, will be known as "El Camino High School."

JULY is convention month, so don't forget to be on the TV end of the Los Angeles and Chicago spectacles.

Along this line, we relay a definition of the two political parties, borrowed from an excellent article in the latest issue of Holiday magazine.

"A Republican when serving a drink measures out the alcohol with a jigger. A Democrat just starts pouring."

IS Daly City's Teen Club an effective organization? Chuck Vincent, director of parks and recreation, has statistical proof positive.

In a period of a year, Teen Club membership has shot from 300 to 1250 active participants. Draw your own conclusions.

Klonoff, Millward Win Trophies For Local Legion Essay Contest

Broadmoor American Legion Auxiliary Unit 824 recently disclosed the winners of the Americanism Essay Contest which was conducted under the auspices of Broadmoor Post 824 and Daly City Unit 410.

The entries included the two local high schools, Westmoor and Jefferson, and all elementary schools.

Topic for Group 1 (fourth, fifth and sixth grades) was the "History of the White House." First prize, a trophy, went to David Klonoff, age 8, 20 Fernwood avenue, a fourth grader at Thomas Edison School.

Second prize, a medal, was given to Judy Bearsh, age 9, 32 Mayfield drive, also a fourth grader at Thomas Edison. Honorable mention was gained by Robert Logan, age 11, 297 Westridge avenue, a sixth grader at Thomas Edison.

Klonoff's essay was sent to the 26th District American Legion Auxiliary contest and placed third among the 14 units competing. He received an Americanism Certificate.

The three top finishers in the local contest were given their awards at a flag raising ceremony at Edison School by Americanism Chairman Evelyn Toschi.

Group II (seventh, eighth and ninth grades) winners were not disclosed at this time.

Group III (Sophomores through seniors) wrote on "Uses and Abuses of the Fifth Amendment." First place, a trophy, was won by John Millward, 17, 1130 87th street, a senior.

Second place, a medal, went to Robert Goodwin, 16, 1740 Louvain drive, a senior. Honorable mention was accorded Mike Kane, 20 Eastwood avenue, a junior.

Millward's essay placed third in 26th district competition and he received an Americanism Certificate.

Mrs. Toschi said the essays were judged on 50 per cent effective fundamental Americanism, 30 per cent organization of subject matter and 20 per cent on language.

DALY CITY UNITS

Joe Bavaresco

Dear Mr. Bavaresco:

You tell people to get a job for the summer and keep busy. Well, what about us kids under 16 who can't get a work permit? We would like to earn some summer money, too. What would you suggest to do? Do you have any ideas? Please help the unemployed teenagers under the 16-year-old work law.

Signed: 11 teenagers under 16 years old.

Dear 16-year-old:

I do realize there is a large percentage of you unable to work, but there is a solution. All eleven of you can organize your own work crew. For example, ask an adult to assist you. Then go to your town council or trustees and tell them you would like to work so you will keep out of trouble. Ask your council if your town laws will permit you to organize a teen work club. It could be set up as such: One or more adults for supervision. Give a phone number to call where people can make an appointment to get their floors washed, cars washed, lawn mowed, garages cleaned, and many other jobs for a small fee. The teenager who does the work gets the individual job fee for him or herself as their pay. So, if you charge $1 to wash a floor, the teenager who washes the floor gets the $1 and everyone is happy. Or, if you like, half of the fee can go to the club and the other half to the teenager doing the job. So, if you charge $2 to wax a car, $1 goes to the kid and the other $1 to the club to cover expenses such as supplies, carfare for the teenagers' transportation, wax or polish for cars, soap and all the other expenses which will arise. Then, if you have money in the club treasury at the end of the summer, all of you can go out to a big dinner or have a party, or spend it in other ways, or you can donate it to the United Crusade or some other worthy organization. If you live in a big city, perhaps your church will back you or such a program as this one, then your pastor can be your adult advisor. Why not discuss it with your parents? Possibly they might help.

Dear Mr. Bavaresco: I am 16 years old, the oldest of three children. I am also the only girl. I have two younger brothers — one is 11 and the other is six. The 11-year-old brother and I get along fine. We are both, I think, neglected. My little brother is spoiled rotten, abnormally so. When he was born the doctor said it was either my mother's life or my little brother's life — one of them would die. My mother often said she didn't want this baby; then, as it turned out, God spared them both. But now my little brother has every little thing his heart desires, while my older brother and I go without many luxuries. My 11-year-old brother and I are left out of the conversation most of the time. The whole house revolves around my little brother. Do you think this is right? Can you explain the reasoning behind my parents' actions so I won't become any more bitter than I am now.

Signed: Laura H.

Dear Laura:

I feel your parents are wrong, but wrong in an understandable way. They are so glad that your little brother lived through his birth that they are inclined to spoil him. Also, he is the baby of the family and is probably the last baby your mother will have and she wants to keep him a baby. Almost every youngest child in every family is spoiled because he is the last child and the one who is the whole family's baby. Everyone watches his cute actions and sayings. Parents enjoy babying him or her because it might be their last baby and they are trying to give it all the love and attention possible. Your mother, however, is a little different. Psychologists tell us that whenever a mother does not want her baby, which is common, that after it is born the mother spoils the baby and is over-protective because she feels guilty for not wanting the baby before it was born. That is why she showers it with love, to continually try to prove her love for her baby. Don't feel badly toward your parents. Because they spoil your little brother does not mean they don't love you. They love you with all their hearts, but the baby is cute, so let them spoil him and try to understand how grateful they are to God for sparing him and your mother.

That's all for this week. See you next week?

Thought for the Week: Smiles are like having a Bible. Lots of people have them but good people use them! Wearing a smile is like wearing clothes. You shouldn't be seen in public without them.

Smog Wasn't Bad In Month Of May For Bay Residents

Bay Area residents enjoyed a smog free month of May except for the last day of the month which began a four-day smog siege, topped by an 0.49 ppm reading in San Mateo on June 3.

Only San Francisco and San Leandro reported smog readings above the eye-smarting level (0.25 ppm) during May. The San Francisco high on May 31 was 0.26 ppm, while San Leandro recorded an 0.32 ppm reading, the Bay Area high for the month.

At eight other Bay Area stations the monthly peak oxidant value was less than 0.10 ppm. May weather was characterized by frequent windy days, accompanied by high and weak inversions.

The highest May Oxidant reading ever recorded was 0.40 ppm in Alameda on May 19, 1955. Last year's May high was 0.29 in San Jose on the 11.

On September 28, 1956, the all time Bay Area smog high, 0.63 ppm, was recorded in Alameda.

A COMMUNITY PROJECT

'Garden Of Reflection' Planned By City Club At Lutheran Church

The spacious grounds surrounding Westlake Lutheran Church, located on Avalon drive near Westmoor avenue, has been selected by the Daly City Garden Club as a "Civic Beautification Project."

This project will develop a "Garden of Reflection" which will include a "New Testament," an "Old Testament," an "Old Testament," an "Herb and Spice" garden and a "Modern" garden which will also include a Rose Garden.

The development of the Gardens will be under the direction of A. J. Lemos, a member of the Daly City Garden Club, and the Rev. Charles R. Christian, pastor of the Westlake Lutheran Church. The cooperation of the Church Council and members and friends of the church was assured in developing this "Bible Garden" project.

Landscaping plans were prepared by Lemos. The engineering and grading services were made possible through the efforts of Frank De Martini who has obtained contributions of materials from various businessmen. The Church Council has pledged financial support and the volunteer services of its members in the development of this unique project.

The three gardens will be separated by a six-foot lattice fence, which eventually will be covered with passion flowers. The gardens will include 89 trees, 29 of which are mentioned in the Bible and will be planted by church members and friends as a "Memorial Tree." Each tree will have a plaque which will be inscribed with the name of the person "memorialized" or the name of the donor and the number of the verse and chapter and name of book where said tree is mentioned in the Bible.

In addition to the trees, 35 different herbs and spices mentioned in the Bible will be planted.

Reverend Christian, the Church Council and the Daly City Garden Club now plan to hold the official dedication of this Garden project during the 50th Anniversary Celebration of the city of Daly City.

This project is the first of several like projects which the Daly City Garden Club plans to undertake, according to J. P. Hargrove, publicity chairman.

'Mysteries Of The Moon' Takes Audience On Realistic Flight

After you have landed on the moon, a vast and rugged lunar landscape stretches for miles on either side. Yawning at your feet are wide crevasses, and in the distance stretches the thousand-foot escarpment of the "straight wall." Strange and eerie rock formations jut out of the dark and lifeless plain about you — odd, weird and wonderful.

And when and where may you arrange for this fabulous journey to the moon? Tickets are available at Morrison Planetarium in Golden Gate Park where the summer show, "Mysteries Of The Moon," features a trip to, and a landing on, our fascinating but forbidding neighbor, the moon.

The journey and the landing are but two features of a truly exciting astronomy show which promises to be a thrilling experience to audiences of all ages. After your arrival, you look back at the earth you have just left behind, still bright from the light of the sun.

Then a peculiar phenomenon takes place: You are about to witness an eclipse of the sun as seen from the moon—the first human in history to do so! As the earth passes in front of the burning ball of the sun, the pale light of the corona and the zodiacal light outline the roundness of the blackened-out earth. The unreal panorama about you has turned blood red!

"Mysteries Of The Moon" is one of the most dramatic presentations ever attempted at Morrison Planetarium. The accurate painting of the lunar landscape used in the show is the result of months of painstaking labor on the part of a talented San Francisco artist, David Porazzo, whose paintings of space and the heavenly bodies in it, will be featured in a one-man show at the Academy during the summer.

Boat Safety Precautions

In support of Boat Safety Week, set for July 3 through 9 by the boating industry and associations interested in boating sport, Farmers Insurance Group Safety Foundation has outlined five basic rules for safe boating, according to Douglas H. Smith, agent in Daly City for Farmers Insurance Group.

Observance of these simple rules should result in many happy hours of boating:

1. Drive carefully on the highway as well as on the waterway—Be Safe and Sober!
2. Don't overload your Boat. Rig. Overloaded boats can produce Death on land or sea.
3. Keep fuel in marked containers and have a fire extinguisher within easy reach.
4. Be alert in congested waters—for swimmers, skiers, and speeders.
5. Remember you are responsible for Junior's Unsafe Acts behind the wheel of a car or in a boat.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to our many friends for their kindness and sympathy extended to me at the bereavement of my beloved husband, Jack.

Special thanks for the Mass Cards and floral tributes.

Joyce Averell Weds Lauren Pottinger, Both Jeff Grads

Two Jefferson High graduates, Joyce Averell and Lauren "Larry" Pottinger Jr., exchanged wedding vows June 5 at Lakeside Presbyterian Church.

Miss Averell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar Averell, 147 Fieldcrest drive, Westlake, attended San Jose State College.

She currently is employed at San Francisco State College. Her affiliations include membership in Job's Daughters.

The benedict, an All-Penninsula basketball player at Jefferson, attended College of San Mateo. He works for Pacific Gas and Electric Company. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Pottinger, 852 Hanover street, Daly City.

Miss Gail Merlo served the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Judy Rymer and Jo Ann Slissman. Darrol Hutchinson was best man, and Dennis Marc and Ken Averell were the ushers.

The young couple honeymooned two weeks in Las Vegas.

HERBERT KRALING AT LAKE TAHOE FOR CONFERENCE

Herbert J. Kraling, 114 Westlawn avenue, Daly City, district representative for Lutheran Brotherhood, will attend a regional educational conference to be conducted by the fraternal life insurance society this week at Brockway Hot Springs hotel, Lake Tahoe.

Kraling is a member of the Lavern H. Peters general agency, Saratoga.

Top officials of the society will speak at the conference, including Carl E. Granrud, president; Harold C. Hoel, vice president in charge of agencies, and John W. F. Lienemann, superintendent of agencies, all of Lutheran Brotherhood's home offices in Minneapolis. Speaking at a concluding banquet will be Dr. Orville Dahl, president of California Lutheran college, Thousand Oaks.

The educational conference is one of a series being conducted by the society during June and July for selected members of its field force. Hoel said "men who are showing real progress with the society are being invited to receive further inspiration and instruction."

Lutheran Brotherhood is the nation's second largest fraternal life insurance society, with

Dom Guastavino Taken From Navy 'Cold Storage'

Dominic Guastavino, of Colma, was removed from "Cold Storage" last week by Daly City's Navy Recruiter, Chief Ken Gaddis, and transferred to the Navy Recruit Training Center at San Diego where he will undergo nine weeks of recruit training.

Dominic, son of Mr. Dominic J. Guastavino of 441 87th street, is a graduate of Elrodan High School and Our Lady of Perpetual Help while in grade school. Having applied for enlistment under the "Cold Storage" program, which is open to high school graduates, Dom was enlisted in the highly select Navy Electronics Field.

Chief Gaddis explained that the "Cold Storage" program, which was initiated in May 1959, guarantees a qualified high school graduate one of the Navy's outstanding technical training schools in the field of his choice. These fields are: Electronics; Nucleonics; Aviation; Hospital-Dental; and the General Field.

Upon completion of "boot" training Dom will be granted 14 days leave before reporting to his next duty station.

HEAT EFFECT ON ROCKETS, MISSILES TEST

Valuable information on the effect of extreme heating conditions on rockets and missiles is being provided through research at the University of California's Engineering Field Station at Richmond.

Information obtained by Warren H. Giedt, associate professor of aeronautical sciences, has already been used in the design of heat shielding for the base of rockets, to protect against the flame reflected from the launching pad when the rocket is fired.

Engineers face two problems in protecting missiles from heating effects, according to Giedt. Under extreme heating rate conditions, surface material is melted and blown off in a process known as "surface ablation," while material beneath remains comparatively cool.

In contrast, more moderate but still severe conditions are encountered for longer periods of time during which a missile's "skin" undergoes very little ablation, but is heated below the surface.

Giedt is director of a project, sponsored by the Army Ballistic Missiles Agency, to investigate the less severe heating conditions which occur when a surface is heated comparatively slowly but very thoroughly.

Primary attention, he said, has been in the investigation of plastic materials which show promise under more severe conditions and may be useful in solving problems in the lower temperature range. To make test, the engineer and his assistant have set up an apparatus which measures the amount of surface material worn away by an oxy-acetylene flame.

BIGGEST STORAGE TANK

Biggest gasoline storage tank in the world is reported by the National Automobile Club to be located near Chicago. The tank holds 4,600,000 gallons.

In case you have trouble visualizing just how much all that is, if your car gets an average of 15 miles to the gallon that tank holds enough gasoline to send your car around the world more than 2770 times.

CEREMONY AT OLPH

Mrs. Arthur Dikas Of Westlake Ct. St. Mary's New Grand Regent

A colorful and impressive ritualistic ceremony Thursday evening at the Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish hall, 80 Wellington avenue, Daly City, Mrs. Charles J. Pietro, District Deputy, conferred official duties on new officers of Court St. Mary No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America.

The gavel, indicative of the high office of Grand Regent, was accepted from the District Deputy by Mrs. Arthur Dikas of Westlake, who succeeded Mrs. DeWitt Brunson of San Bruno at this thirtieth annual installation.

Placed in their respective stations by the assisting monitor, Miss Eileen Brooks of Court Cathedral, were Mesdames—Elmo Pucci, Vice Grand Regent; Warren Stienback, prophetess; Curtis Collins, financial secretary; John Kulik, historian; Louise M. Barnard, treasurer; Maurice Clark, monitor; Marcel Covell, sentinel; James O'Reilly, lecturer; and Mrs. DeWitt Brunson and Mrs. Gerald O'Reilly as trustees.

Guest organizer for the evening was Mrs. Ernest Hecht, and the vocalist Mrs. Wallace Mead.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies they rendered the selection "Only A Rose," while the new officers each presented Mrs. Pietro, who was performing her last official duty for the Court prior to the conclusion of her duties as the District Deputy, with a red rose and green fern.

The outgoing Grand Regent, Mrs. Brunson, was presented with a lovely arrangement of flowers in a white Madonna vase by the Court and a large framed picture of the Sacred Heart of Jesus by her various officers and chairmen, along with a scrapbook reminiscent of her terms activities and publicity accorded the Court through the media of newspapers, from her chairman of Public Relations, Mrs. Harvey Mumford.

She in turn graciously thanked the members for the wholehearted co-operation she received throughout the year and admonished the new monitor Mrs. Clark, to present her officers and chairmen with her tokens of appreciation in the fulfillment of their duties.

Guests attending the Installation included Mrs. Fred Wettstein, Vice State Regent; Mrs. Mabel M. Sherry, Archdiocesan chairman of Share the Faith, and Mrs. Antonette Cerasi, District Deputy from Oakland, as well as members of Court Golden Gate, Court California, Court Salesian and Court Father Francisco de Lasuene.

A delicious repast, coordinated by Mrs. Edward Priola and Mrs. Elio Ciardella and their committee, was served from a gaily appointed buffet table at the conclusion of the evening.

After a summer recess Court St. Mary will reconvene meetings on August 18.

Salinas Celebration

LIGHTED FLOAT PARADE WILL CLIMAX BIG CALIFORNIA RODEO

This year's Colmo del Rodeo, the glittering Saturday night lighted float parade which is a highlight of the California Rodeo at Salinas, July 21 to 24, will outshine all others, it was predicted today by Dick Fetherstonhaugh, general chairman.

Salinas is celebrating its Golden Jubilee this year and prominent in the parade will be the Golden Girl of the California Rodeo, Miss Cynthia Jones, resplendent in gold lame Levi's, a gold shirt and gold boots especially created for her role by the Justin Boot Company of Fort Worth, Texas.

The beautiful floats, snappy marching units, colorful bands and champion majorettes will move down streets touched with gold in honor of the 50th anniversary.

Also new this year will be the Colmo Clown Club, an organization composed of Hartnell college students and others, which will add comedy to the glamorous parade.

All entries, including floats, will be judged by members of the American Association of Contest Judges with a Grand Sweepstakes prize of $500 to be awarded to the outstanding float in both the professional and amateur divisions.

Other cash awards, trophies and gold medals valued in excess of $3000 will be awarded, Fetherstonhaugh said.

For those who wish to view the parade in comfort, 10,000 grandstand seats will be erected along the entire route of the parade.

Prices for parade seats range from $1 for children to $1.50 and $2 for adults.

The Colmo del Rodeo parade, which dates back to 1913, is sponsored annually by the Salinas Junior Chamber of Commerce and has become known as the finest lighted night float parade on the Pacific Coast.

Money derived from the sale of grandstand seats is used to finance the parade for the following year.

Italian Catholic Federation Units Set Dinner For Queen Candidate

A dinner is planned for July 9, to honor Queen Candidate Marie Moggia, chosen by the twelve branches of the San Francisco Council of the Italian Catholic Federation, to represent them in their annual convention, which will be held September 2-5, in San Jose.

Joe Casanova, chairman of the Queen Committee, promises "the dinner will be the best Italian dinner you have eaten." Such fine cooks as Joe Pucci, trustee of Central Council, as well as president of his branch No. 7 in South San Francisco, and Joe DeFelice president of branch 59, will be the chefs.

Assisting the chairman are Josephine Catibano, Mary Camigi, Norma Baldeschi, Flora Torrono, Verna Teglia, Al Teglia and Rinaldo Carmazzi, who are working on plans to make this evening a most enjoyable one. After dinner there will be entertainment and dancing.

Rinaldo Carmazzi, chairman of the ways and means committee, urges members and their friends to attend this dinner. All proceeds will be used to purchase tickets for her.

The dinner is open to the public. It will be held July 9 at Epiphany Hall, Naples and Amazon streets. Price of the dinner, including dancing and entertainment, is $3. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. Although tickets are limited, reservation may be made by calling Marie Moggia, JU 7-5914, or Flora Torrono, JU 7-4734.

Marie is 21 years old, a student at San Francisco State College studying for her B.A. degree and Kindergarten Primary Teaching Credential. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moggia, 825 Geneva avenue, and has one brother.

Marie is competing against seven young ladies from the different districts of California, plus Chicago and Nevada.

Al Teglia, president of Colma Branch 19, which meets at Holy Name Church Hall, says that his branch is all set to help queen candidate Marie in this dinner. All members are asked to be present at this dinner. The branch now has tickets. Members may make reservations by calling Teglia.

In addition to the traditionally fine floral and agricultural displays, industries of the area will exhibit their products in the new building.

STILL ROOM FOR BEGINNING BOWLERS HERE

The summer Instruction League, held every Monday at 1:15 p.m. at the Westlake Bowl, still has room for new bowlers. This is an excellent opportunity for a youngster to grasp the fundamentals of the game. There are also openings in the Saturday morning 9 a.m. Bantam league for bowlers 12 and under. To join one of these leagues all that is necessary is to be present at the time the league meets to bowl. The Junior program director will do the rest.

At an award banquet last week at the Westlake Bowl for Boys Junior league, awards for the first two places as well as individual presentations were made for the league. First place trophies were awarded to the Westlake Richmond team.

Team members are Bob Groat, Larry Tomassini, Harry Sizeland, Monte Funai, and Mike McLaughlin. Second place team awards were presented to the Lake Merced Nursery and Florist members; Bill Thompson, Bob Ottosen, John Bartelmez, Phil Hargrove, Jim Fisher.

Winner of the high game award was Bob Cowan for his 237 game. High series winner was Phil Hargrove with his 550. Most improved bowler was Harry Sizeland for improving his average more than 20 pins during the course of the season. Sponsor trophies were also presented to the two team captains for their sponsors.

Deep Sea Animals Being Sought By Tethys' Group

An oceanographic expedition designed to study marine animals that live in the deep waters of the eastern Pacific has left San Diego for Hawaii.

Tethys Expedition will take the research vessel "Spencer F. Baird" of the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography south of the equator and then northward to Honolulu. She will then sail southwest of Hawaii for geological studies. The return voyage from Honolulu will again be concerned with deep-water marine creatures. The expedition takes its name from Greek legend: Tethys was a sea nymph.

Leader of the biological work on the expedition is John A. McGowan, Graduate Research Biologist at Scripps. William R. Riedel, Assistant Research Geologist, will head the geological investigation.

The distribution of creatures living near the surface has proved to be a good indicator of surface circulation patterns, McGowan says. He is seeking to determine whether creatures that live as much as two miles deep may in the same way offer clues as to the properties of the deep water and its circulation pattern. To do this, he will collect specimens at frequent intervals along the route and map their distribution.

W'LAKE STUDENT AT WHEATON FOR SUMMER CLASSES

Thomas Donald Stangle, 1218 South Mayfair avenue, Daly City, a sophomore student at Wheaton college last year, has enrolled in the 46th annual summer school at Wheaton college (Illinois).

He is a philosophy major and a member of the Wheaton track team.

The summer program begins with inter-session, June 14 to 24, during which two semester hours credit may be gained. The courses are varied to appeal to a wide range of professional interests as well as particular emphasis on the needs of Christian workers.

Young children should be supervised even with classified and labeled "safe and sane" fireworks, in order to prevent fires or burns while the kids are having their Fourth of July fun.

AMVETS Sell 'Safe' Fireworks At Linda Mar

The AMVETS, veterans organization, will sell fireworks on Linda Mar boulevard, across from the Linda Mar Shopping Center from July 2-4 and the monies realized from this sale will be used by the post to support its veteran programs.

Post Commander Arthur Nystrum said only "safe and sane" fireworks are sold by the AMVETS Post, in accordance with the State Health and Safety Code.

He warned parents against the purchase of firecrackers or other dangerous fireworks prohibited under the Health and Safety Code. "In the past, we have heard parents mention the purchase of firecrackers from bootleggers in San Francisco Chinatown," said Nystrum. The sale of firecrackers is unlawful and can be instruments of tragedy in young, inexperienced

9506 Attend Park During 3 Days

Since the start of the 1960 Summer Program jointly sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, Jefferson Elementary and High School Districts, the parks and school recreation sites have been crowded with active youngsters.

The official attendance reports for the first three days of the program reveal that 9506 children, teen-agers* and adults have taken advantage of these facilities. This figure covering only three days is indicative of the high degree of interest shown each summer in the Daly City Recreation Program.

Another facet of the summer program is the Day Camp at Junipero Serra Park. Registration is still being accepted for all periods. Parents planning on registering their children for this activity should contact the Department of Park and Recreation at 144 Hillside Boulevard between the hours of 9-12 and 1-5 p.m. Monday-Friday. For further details, call PL 5-0850, Ext. 18.

'SOUTH PACIFIC' OPENS FRIDAY IN OAKLAND

The fabulous "South Pacific," Rodgers and Hammerstein's all-time hit musical extravaganza of Navy life on a remote South Sea island during World War II, will open the gala tenth anniversary season of summer musicals at Woodminster Amphitheater on Friday, July 1.

In launching this special anniversary star of the Woodminster Light Opera Series, the smash success will be making its initial production debut in the East Bay. It is described by producer-director John M. Falls as one of the largest musical undertakings ever presented by members of the Oakland Light Opera Association.

Woodminster's vast outdoor stage and seating gallery, nestled high in the Oakland Hills at Joaquin Miller Park, represent the perfect setting for the cool beauty, warm romance, and high comedy antics which make "South Pacific" such a heart-warming and memorable experience for any theatergoer, explains Raymond H. Miller, chairman of the Oakland Park Commission.

The pulsating music and light-hearted dances of "South Pacific" will be under the direction of famed Woodminster conductor Carl Kalash and choreographer Raoul Pause. Ace set designer Tom Doyle will handle the big job of recreating the "atmosphere of the islands" to match such wonderfully haunting refrains as "Bali Hai," "Some Enchanted Evening," and "Happy Talk."

Queen Contest Will Benefit Crippled Kids

Dan Casentini of Daly City, president of the Italian-American Federation of San Mateo County, today announced that the Federation's Columbus Day queen contest will be devoted to aid the Crippled Children's Society of the county again this year.

Over the years, the Federation has given $500 scholarships to needy students. This year, however, the new administration officers decided that the San Mateo County's Crippled Children's Society be the recipient of the proceeds from the ticket sales of the contest.

Casentini stated that the Federation is in need of young girl contestants throughout the county. Any girl 16 years and over may enter the contest, which will be profitable and adventurous for each contestant, but more profitable to the crippled children and adults.

Any young lady desiring more information may contact Casentini at 178 Edgemont drive, Daly City, PL 6-4521, or Roy Barghini, 780 Niantic street, PL 5-5658.

Deadline for entries is August 1.

'Entirely Different Atmosphere' For Main Hall At SM County Fair

The design for the interior of the main hall at the San Mateo County Fair and Fiesta will be something "entirely different in atmosphere" from past years, Eric Clough has announced.

Clough, designer for the Fiesta, told the amateur division staff at their meeting this week that his new design called for a rugged mountain in the center of the hall tapering down around the 'building's' perimeter.

In past years, the center has been low and slopes extended up the walls on each side.

"The nearest we have come to this design in the past," Clough said, "was the year we used a grove of giant redwoods in the center."

Mrs. George Dombroski, amateur division chairman, asked her staff to urge all chairmen of outdoor gardens to get their entries in before all categories are closed.

"The Garden Corner and Patio Garden categories are already full," she said.

Mrs. Dombroski, a seventh grade teacher at McKinley Junior High School in Redwood City, is a member of the Civic Garden club in San Carlos and the Redwood City Women's Club.

Her staff of volunteers represents the following areas: Belmont—Mrs. Arthur N. Wells and Mrs. Charles W. King; Redwood City—Mrs. Paul E. Proctor, Mrs. Dombroski, Mrs. A. L. Poncillo and Mrs. Elmer Humber; San Carlos—Mrs. L. M. Enright and Mrs. Richard

Court Of Honor Awards Announced By Westlake Troop

On Friday evening, June 22, at Sigmund Stern Grove, Boy Scout Troop 343 of Daly City held its court of honor.

Following opening messages by Scoutmaster Frank Beukers and J. Black, the court of honor ceremonies began featuring the award of merit badges, advancements to second class Scouts, and other presentations.

The award of "God and Country" was presented to Robert Beukers, one of the most prized and well merited honors. Herbert Schmidt made the presentation.

K. Sale gave an inspiring message to the gathering of Scouts and their parents, after which he presented the Life Scouting Award to Robert Beukers, a memorable step forward in the field of Scouting.

Awards presented to Scouts of Westlake were as follows: Second Class Scout — Robert Baumhoffer, William Slocum, Steven Sale, Edward Penna, Robert Mason, Paul Carrara, Bill Blum, Stephen Douglas, Roland Ober, Wade Pickett, Michael Ednot.

Merit Badges — John Eiler and Robert Beukers.

Special Mention to Patrol Leaders — John Eiler and Don Black.

New Pisa Loses Saturday Loop Opener, 4-3, To Police Post

Two run outbursts in the fifth and sixth innings allowed Police Post 456 to take a 4-3 decision from New Pisa Restaurant in the Northern California Manager's Association Summer Saturday Baseball League.

New Pisa, consisting of Jeff High School horsehiders, scored first in the top of the third. Stan Montalbo, playing first base, led off with a deep triple. He scored on Joe Bollentini's hit. The restauranters tallied again in the fifth as Stan gained life on an error, was sacrificed to second by Bollentini, and romped home on Jack Fuertes one-baser. Fuertes moved to second on catcher Giovannola's error and plated the third run on Tony Montalbo's strong single.

Bob Miller had pitched four innings of good baseball but got off on the wrong foot in the fifth. He walked three consecutive batters and allowed a basehit. Stan Montalbo came in to put out the fire but the score was 3-2.

Montalbo became the losing pitcher as opposing hill man Gualce led off with a single and scored on Musante's triple. Musante raced all the way home as shortstop Larry Keeling erred on the relay play. New Pisa meets Wally's Fork-

WEST COACHES CHOOSE FORMER JEFF PITCHER

Walt Carlson, 18-year-old Brisbane youth who pitched for Jeff High a year ago, was chosen as one of the West players for the Examiner prep baseball game.

Carlson, who graduated this month, did not play this year due to not having any eligibility left for the Indians. However, he was outstanding in Sunday semi-pro ball while chukking for Johnson's Tamales. The 6-3, 190 pounder, has a sidearm fastball which throws the batters off stride.

He failed to win a game while at Jeff but his development has been exceptional. His former Jeff Coach Steve Mezzera states that Carlson has all the "tools" to make good.

State Game Warden Catches Up With Vehicle Violator

Thorough investigation by a California Fish and Game warden lost him a case, but gained one for the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Warden A. F. James of Eureka had cited James B. McGrath, 42, of 113 J street, Eureka, for giving a false statement to secure a resident California angling license. McGrath had been driving vehicle with Oregon license plates renewed in December, 1959. He had bought his California fishing license March 18, 1960, and explained to Warden James that he had been in California only three months at the time of purchase. A resident California fishing license specifies six months residence.

Warden James checked further and learned McGrath had lived and worked in California for two years, but had been buying his car licenses in Oregon—no Fish and Game violation, but the District Attorney turned the matter over to the Department of Motor Vehicles. Result: McGrath must pay some $125 for penalties and fines for the years 1959 and 1960 for a violation of the Motor Vehicle Code.

At the finish of all postponed games, the BYA, Excelsior and New Pisa baseballers will square off in play-offs for the JACK THUR, former Jefferson High School All-Peninsula football guard, recently graduated from Michigan State University. He was a guard with the Spartan gridmen also.

'JARRING' JACK THUR

Former Jeff High Grid Standout Graduates From Michigan State

Jack Leon Thur, one of Jefferson High's finest football players, received a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education on June 12 in the 100th annual commencement exercise at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

The 24-year-old Daly City resident plans to take graduate work for a teaching credential. He graduated from Jefferson in 1954 after winning All-Peninsula honors as a guard for Coach Joe McGrath's Indian varsity footballers.

Jack attended Oregon Tech and San Mateo Junior College prior to obtaining an athletic scholarship to Michigan State. His contact with the Big Ten school was made by Tony Giammona, present director of athletics at Westmoor High in Daly City. Giammona was a quarterback at Michigan State before his transfer to San Jose State.

At Michigan State, Thur played behind All-American center Dan Currie for two years. Just recently, Jack went to Los Angeles for a tryout with the Los Angeles Chargers of the new American Football League.

He is the son of John and Helen Thur, 76 San Joaquin avenue, Daly City.

Emmett Shuts Out Broadmoor Post, 2-0, With 5 Hits

South San Francisco High School pitcher Dan Emmett of Bernard McGaffrey American Legion Post 355, set Broadmoor Post 824 down with but five hits at Marchbanks Park last Sunday, 2-0.

Emmett allowed two walks and struck out four while his teammates out-tussled Barry Krohn for two runs. Krohn gave up but three hits and three walks while striking out 12. Broadmoor had runners on second and third in two different situations but couldn't bring the runners across the plate.

Cute led off the first inning with a walk, was sacrificed to second, and reached third base on a passed ball. He scored on Duke Tadday's single. The only other run came in the ninth frame when Kray Hensley walked and went all the way to third base on two passed balls and tallied on Emmett's one base blow.

Rich Morales led Broadmoor's hitting attack with 2 for 3. Collecting one hit apiece were Don Katona, Scott Shackelford and Darryl Woodside. Post 824 will meet Redwood City there at 1:30 p.m. Sunday.

St. Francis Hts., Westlake Kids Have Edison Site

The Parks and Recreation Department announces that since the start of the 1960 Summer Program, a new site, Thomas Edison School, has been opened for the children of the Westlake and St. Francis Heights area. Thomas Edison School, located at 1255 Southgate Avenue, will be open from 10 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

To enrich the regular program offered at this site, recreation specialists will visit the playground throughout the week. On Monday from 10 a.m. to 10 and 1-4 p.m., there will be a baseball school (at Westmoor High School), Tumbling 1-1:45 p.m. and movies 4-4:45 p.m. On Tuesdays, there will be arts & crafts from 10:30-11:30 a.m. On Wednesdays, Story Hour and Dramatics from 10:30-12 and on Thursdays, Music from 10:30-12. Every Friday there will be a citywide special event for all playgrounds. More information on this matter may be obtained from Jeff Stahl, the Recreation Leader at Thomas Edison School.

Police Chief Urges Careful Cycling During July 4 Holiday

Bike riders were warned to exercise caution and observe all traffic rules during the heavily traveled three-day fourth of July holiday by Police Chief R. A. Petrocchi.

Chief R. A. Petrocchi noted that all through streets would be heavily traveled and urged all cyclists to confine their cycling to less crowded secondary streets and roads during the peak traffic hours.

"Bike riders should make an effort to avoid heavily-traveled traffic arteries during the peak traffic load hours at all times," the Chief said, "and in particular should avoid primary traffic areas during this weekend."

The local police official stated that bike riding has grown in popularity in recent years, and stressed the necessity of heeding all traffic rules and regulations on the part of the cyclists.

"A bike is a vehicle," he said, "and as such it is required to obey all traffic rules and regulations."

He said that riders should wear light-colored clothing at night, equip their bikes with the proper signalling and lighting equipment and be sure that their brakes are in good operating condition.

12 rules of safe riding:

1. Observe all traffic regulations, signs and lights.
2. Keep to the right. Ride in

Police Athletic League Bowling Tourney Rolls

Daly City Mayor Frank Pacelli rolled the first ball down the lanes at Westlake Bowl promptly at 12:15 p.m. Sunday to launch the second annual Daly City Police Athletic League benefit bowling tournament.

A brief ceremony featuring remarks from the mayor and Chief of Police Roland Petrocchi, and exhibition rolls by veteran Bob Bresnahan, holder of the only 300 game rolled at Westlake, House Champ Bob McNeilly, and co-chairmen of the tourney, John and Jane Doelger, preceded the bowling in earnest.

Along with the city officials who competed, and there is not much danger of them coping the top prize, were members of the Doelgers' committee, the Four Squares, winners of the Holy Angels Woman's League, and public spirited bowlers.

Leaders in the same fifty initial keggers were Bill Wilson Jr., whose 528 series plus 132 handicap gave him a 660; and Pat Garcia, captain of the Four Squares who posted a 465 plus 146 611 series.

Captain Roy Beecher, prize chairman, said already Daly City merchants have given more than 200 prizes ranging from major appliances to smaller items.

The tournament will run through August 7. The price is $2.75 of which $1 from every entrant will go to the PAL.

Westlake league bowlers can enter each time they roll with their team for $1. A 3-6-9 strike competition will bring more money for Daly City youngsters. Cost is $1 and the entrant who strikes on the third, sixth, and ninth frame will win a prize—liquid.

Pacifica Recreation Department Announces Eight Week Schedule

The Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department announces that the playgrounds opened for the summer last Monday.

The specific playgrounds and hours are as follows: Pacific Manor, Westview, Vallemar and Pedro Valley will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sanchez hours will be 9:30 a.m. to noon and Sharp Park will have an afternoon schedule from 12:30 to 4 p.m. The playgrounds will be open Monday through Friday until the closing date of August 19.

There will be a male and a female recreation leader on each playground to conduct the various activities. The leaders are Jean Buckley, Helen James, Jan Hedman, Kathleen Monley, Randy Myers, Bruce McChesney, Joanne Stone and Joan Westerlund. Five specialists will be rotating to the playgrounds, leading activities of special interest: Kingston Witchee and Nick Wilks—Baseball; Darr Blum—Arts and crafts; Boyd Johnson—Music and Rhythms; and Susan Bein—Dramatics.

The theme for the summer program will be "Around The World In Eight Weeks." Each week will have a subtopic of a different country: France, Germany, Spain, Italy, Russia, Japan, Mexico, and America. The leaders will plan and conduct the activities on the playground placing special interest on the topic country of the week.

There will be a movie shown on the following playgrounds each week throughout the summer: Pacific Manor—Tuesdays at 10 a.m., Vallemar—Tuesdays at 2 p.m., Pedro Valley—Wednesdays at 10 a.m., and Westview—Wednesdays at 2 p.m. There will be a five cent admission fee for each movie, but the agenda appears to be well worth the cost. The movies will be in the consecutive order of the eight weeks showing: "Ma & Pa Kettle On Vacation," "The Treasure of Lost Canyon," "Raiders of the 7-Sea," "Gulliver's Travels," "The Flying Dutchman," "Joe Butterfly," "Mexican Hayride," and "Chief Crazy Horse."

All playgrounds will be taking trips during the regular program and will be transported by bus to scheduled destinations: Fleishacker Zoo, San Mateo County Junior Museum, Things always look preposterous after time elapses. Claims have been that Willie McCovey was "not hitting the ball," McCovey, batting in the clean-up spot, was supposed to get the runs across the plate.

This he was accomplishing. Yet, the second guessers were begging he be yanked from the line-up cause he wasn't hitting. The job of a fourth spot batter is to get the runs across the plate, not hit for an average. McCovey is a fearsome sight at the plate to opposing pitchers.

He also has the potential to break up any ball game. Ask any chucker in the National League if he would rather face McCovey, when he's not hitting, than Andre Rodgers, Dale Long or Jim Marshall. Long and Marshall were both hitting less, percentage-wise, than McCovey and Rodgers is good for spot duty but definitely not a regular first sacker.

In addition to these factors, which are facts not hearsay, McCovey has been acclaimed as having the smoothest swing since Ted Williams came along to drill holes in fences. If McCovey isn't a bonafide clean-up hitter then Babe Ruth wasn't either. Ruth, year after year, led the American League in strike-outs. He ended his career with more K's than any other player before or since. What is the value of a strike-out with runners on base? None, whatsoever.

Yet, in all honesty, a manager would have to have mitt padding in his head not to have placed Babe in the No. 4 spot. McCovey is close to the top in home runs and is one of the chief Giants rbi men.

Semi-logical argument here is that if the first three men get on base, then the clean-up swatter would knock them in. However, baseball players know that a pitcher tries to get more on the ball or perhaps, less to confuse the big swatters) and is beating down on a batter such as McCovey.

Let's take the situation again. Bases are loaded, no outs, you are the manager. You need either a high fly ball, base hit or walk to score at least one run. Who would you want up, McCovey, Long, Marshall or Rodgers?

Long and Marshall both have power at times. Rodgers is a single batter and wouldn't be hitting No. 4. McCovey is the only choice.

McCovey is slow afoot and can't field well, is another statement. For many seasons the same thing was said of Williams. "The only thing he can do is hit." This is like saying you don't like Eddi Arcaro because the only thing he can do is ride horses.

We feel sorry for Willie Mac. He started out with such a bang last year that if he would have hit 3 for 3 the first game of the 1960 campaign people would have still said "he isn't as good as last year."

Perhaps if McCovey would have broken in with 0 for 4 and had just a little bit better than average season last year the fans wouldn't have expected miracles of him the first two months of this one.

Just as idiotic was the San Francisco editorial that blasted the Giants for playing so poorly when they were just one game out of first place. Almost tying this great below the belt punch was the Cleveland Indians' public who roasted Jim Piersall with inane oratory. Piersall is having the greatest year, thus far, of his baseball career and holding the Indians together like masking tape.

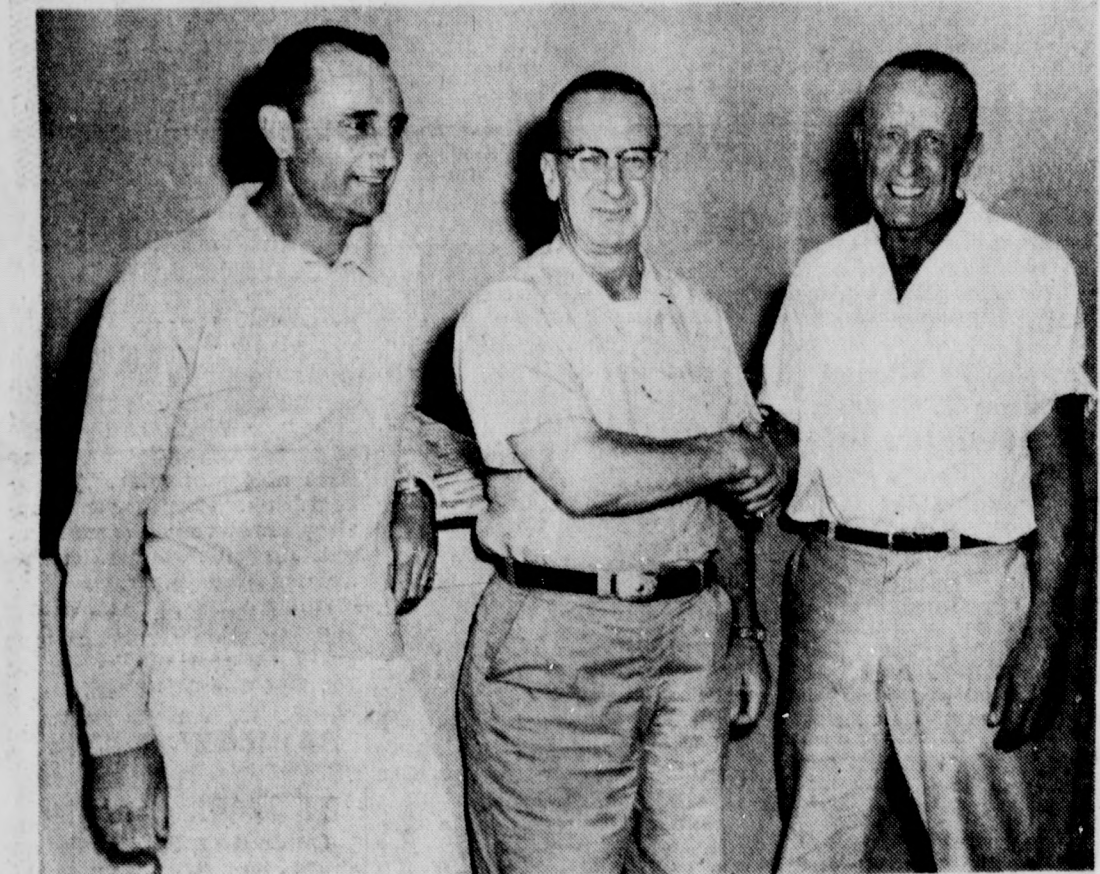

One other beef that can be brought out—Mickey Mantle being accused of hitting fans when he had to run for his life. Even if Mantle would have taken off his belt buckle and swatted fans who tried to declothe him for souvenirs we would have shouted "Hurray." The John Q. (standing for "Questionable") fan shouldn't be on the field in the first place until all players have left.

To get back to McCovey. Anytime we're at the ball park we hope that he plays. We like the potential threat even if it's not always realized. One thing is for sure, opposing pitchers realize it. McCovey has a better walk per game average than any other Giant.
